WEEKLY NEWSLETTER NO. 17

- The Board arranged for the 17th Weekly Meeting to take place down at the Molos Promenade where the Children's Playground that the Club assembled with various toys and rides is found. Together with the Limassol Mayor the Club organized a short Handover Ceremony of the latest addition to the playground which is a swing for children with special needs.
- After the Ceremony, the present members of the Club together with the Mayor lunched at a Restaurant down at the Castle Area. It was a very friendly meeting/ fellowship and an opportunity to discuss with the Mayor about the status and the future of the Agios Panteleimon Old People's Home that the Club constructed some years ago. The Mayor's suggestions and advice was noted and will be discussed by the Board in following meetings.
- The 17th meeting had finally adjourned around 14.30 p.m.
- After Lunch and on completion of the meeting, the Board stayed to discuss the Club's agenda for this month. Some of the topics included; our Christmas Bazaar, Members Attendance and Scholarships.
- The Board has noticed that a number of Rotarians do not attend the Weekly Meetings as they should. Please note that Rotary is not Volunteer work; when you become a Rotarian, you have to devote part of your personal time to the Club. Rotarians must have at least 50% attendance during a Rotarian Year. Please consider the above seriously, as we want active and enthusiastic people which are willing to help the Club with various projects and are willing to participate at different events organized.
- Next week's meeting will take place on Wednesday, 20:00 at Londa Hotel for Wine and Finger food. We will officially present the Rotary/Vlassides unique blend of wine and Mr. Sophoklis Vlassides will talk about the specific blend, while also inform us of ways to preserve wines. We will also have the honour of tasting some of the other varieties of the Vlassides Wine range.
- It is an opportunity for the members that have difficulties in attending our lunch meetings to attend this one. Hope to see all of you there!! HAVE A NICE WEEK!
