WEEKLY NEWSLETTER NO. 2

- The meeting was called at 13:15 p.m.
 - The Secretary made the weeks announcements, and highlighted the recent birthdays of P.P Adolfos Kannetis and Rotarian Kyriakos Kalogrades. A donation was given by both Fellow Rotarians and we thanked them.
 - The Secretary also mentioned the slight change of our weekly program for the current month. (changes shown in the 'Agenda' section- adjacent column)
 - An Announcement was made by the President: 1st District Polio Seminar will take place in Beirut on September 6th and the visit of R.I President Elect: John Germ and his wife Judith will take place on the 4th/6th September, also in Beirut.
 - The President awarded P.P Vasilis Hadjivassiliou with a pin received from the Rotary International (under the new member recognition program) as regards to the new members he introduced to the club.
1. Today's meeting focused on the speech that one of our New Rotarian, Rotarian & Treasurer Spyros Ioannou made; on how he sees the Club's future. He presented us with a positive view and gave us various ideas on which the Club received with a mixture of responses. Some ideas included:
- The possibility of all Rotary Clubs of Limassol sharing the same premises for their meetings, fellowship and for a common place to meet for after work gatherings.
 - Make the business meetings more interesting by discussing the current topics/affairs, be it either financial, political or Rotary International related affairs.
 - Get more involved with the Society by doing more projects and include all Rotarians (instead of just the Board) with these activities & Fund Raising events.
- Rotarian Spyros has given us a lot of food for thought and an exchange of views was carried out until and beyond 14:30 p.m (some of us stayed until 15:00 p.m.) A few of the ideas will hopefully be implemented during this Rotarian year.
- The meeting was adjourned at 14:40 p.m.
