WEEKLY NEWSLETTER NO. 35

- The meeting was called on and around 13:15 with PP Panicos Loizou saying Grace.
- After Grace, we had a professional photographer take a picture of the Assembly on the steps at the entrance of our meeting room at the Crowne Plaza Hotel. This picture will be included in the Club's next project; the book of "The History of the Rotary Club of Limassol" which has already begun and is under good process.
- It was a well attended meeting, and thank you for coming.
- The Secretary made the week's announcements:
 - He read out a letter the Club received from one of our students Miss Giovanna Kouloundi, expressing her gratitude towards the Club for contributing towards her education.
 - An advance donation (€20.00) was given to the Club by Rotarian Costas Colakkides for his nameday next month. Thank you Costa.
- The President followed by talking to the Assembly about this year's Paul Harris Fellows that the Board is proposing, and an approval was given.
- The President also presented to the meeting the proposed rules/regulations that the Board is proposing as regards to establishing within our Scholarship Fund, the possibility of an individual or family sponsoring for an additional student grant in honour of the family/individual's name; under the umbrella of our Club's Scholarship Fund.
- These proposed rules will be sent to all of you as soon as they are ready. Your comments on this will be appreciated.
- Next week's meeting is an Austerity Lunch- Holy week. As a Guest we will have Mr. Dimitris Georgiou from the Wellgoods Company.
