WEEKLY NEWSLETTER NO. 4

- The meeting was called at 13:15 p.m.
- 1. Srgent at arms welcomed an ex- Rotarian Ms. Magdalini Kyriakopoulou(Rotary Club of Dallas, Texas) who has moved to Cyprus from the United States. Our Secretary made the announcements of the week.
 - i. A contribution of €35.00 was given to the Club by Rotarian Andreas Loizou for his Birthday.
 - ii. Forthcoming meetings: Speeches from Rotarians; Andreas Constantinides for the Public Relations Avenue and Fofis Christofides for the Service Projects Avenue.
- 2. Following that the President asked the assembly about their view on the District Governor’s suggestion, urging the Rotarians and the Clubs to contribute towards the final push to fund the End Polio. The assembly unanimously voted for a contribution of $1,000.00 towards the Fund.
- 3. The President then asked our visitor Ms. Magdalini Kyriakopoulou to talk about her life in the United States, as well as her involvement in the Rotary Club she was attending in America.
- 4. Our guest of the day Mr. Mimis Sophokleous then took the stand and presented to the Club the pre-printed, final, anastatic version of the book “The History of Limassol from the day that the town was established until the year 1897” by the late Xenofon Pharmakides. A number of questions were raised by some Rotarians for which Mr. Sophocleous was happy to answer.
- 5. Finally the Club had come to an agreement of financing the printing of the anastatic version of the book with the total sum of €2,500.00. With this amount of money Mr. Sophokleous will provide a number of soft back books as well as a number of hard back in which the Club can keep. What a fine combination, the oldest Club of Limassol financing the printing of the anastatic version of the oldest book of Limassol..Beautiful!
- Again it was another interesting meeting coming to an end at around 14:40 p.m.
