Weekly message

'When we really engage Rotary, that's when lives change. And, at the end of the day, no matter how many lives you reach out to change, the life that will change the most will be your own. That's what our theme for 2013-2014 is all about. Engage Rotary, Change Lives.'

RI President Ron Burton

President Loucas congratulated the following:

PP Era who has a newborn grandson, George, from her son Petros.

IPDG Kevork, who made our club proud, for a very successful year as a DG.

IPP Eleni for a successful, interesting and productive year.

IPDRR (Immediate Past District Rotaract Representative) Elena Aroti, the Rotaractors team and Caterina Kalavas for a successful district conference.

The conference was attended by 120 persons at the opening and 135 persons at closing. We are proud of them.

Secretary Nazo (PTRF Director) for his hard and dedicated work in concluding The Supply of the Drinking Water Project for the Village of Sotk. Now, Nazo is in Armenia to attend the opening ceremony in the presence of the members of Rotary Club of Yerevan, the Host country, the head/mayor of the village, the contractor and villagers.

Club Assembly

The Club Assembly has been postponed due to lack of quorum.

Presentation of the Year 2012-13

IPP Eleni Z made a power point presentation of what has been done and achieved during the year of her presidency that has just passed. She ended thanking her board for its commitment and dedication and conveyed special thanks also to IPDG Kevork and our AG Dervish Baha for their continuous valuable support and, of course, her family.
